Re: Freedom of Information Request FOI-000044-2018 Request Refused

Dear

I refer to your request, dated 25th January, 2018 and received on 26th January, 2018 which you have made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 (FOI Act) for records held by An Garda Síochána.

Part 1(n) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act states that An Garda Síochána is listed as a partially included agency “insofar as it relates to administrative records relating to human resources, or finance or procurement matters”. Therefore, only administrative records that relate to human resources, finance or procurement shall be considered.

Your request sought:

I respectfully request the following information under Freedom of Information legislation:

The issuing of firearms licences (numbers of licences, etc.) in Ireland for the purposes of hunting elephants, lions or other African big game.

I wish to inform you that I have decided to refuse your request on the 29th January, 2018.

The purpose of this letter is to explain my decision.

1. Findings, particulars and reasons for decision

Section 6(2)(a) of the FOI Act provides that an entity specified in Schedule 1, Part 1 of the Act shall, subject to the provisions of that Part, be a public body for the purposes of the FOI Act. Schedule 1, Part 1 contains details of bodies that are partially included for the purposes of the FOI Act and also details of the certain specified records that are excluded. If the records sought come within the description of the exclusions of Part 1, then the FOI Act does not apply and no right of access exists.

Part 1(n) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act provides that An Garda Síochána is not a public body for the purposes of the FOI Act other than in relation to administrative records relating to human resources, or finance or procurement matters.

The term “administrative records” is understood to mean records relating to the processes of running and managing a business or organisation.

I am therefore refusing your request as it falls outside the scope of the FOI Act insofar as the records you seek do not meet the criteria of “administrative records relating to human resources, or finance, or procurement matters” as defined in the Act.

However, I advise that summary information on firearm licensing is available in An Garda Síochána Annual Report for 2015 which is available in the Publications section on the Garda Website (www.garda.ie).

2. Right of Appeal

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you may seek an Internal Review of the matter by writing to the address below and quoting reference number FOI-000044-2018.
